10. [REDACTED] LEGISLATION Received a call from Ms. April Gardner, in Senator Paul Sarbanes' (D., Md.) office, who wanted to know if there was a bill that would make mandatory retirement at age 55 for FBI, CIA and the Secret Service. After checking with [REDACTED] Office of Personnel, I told Ms. Gardner that there was such a bill passed last Congress covering firefighters, FBI, the agents of the Drug Enforcement Agency and Air Traffic Controllers, but CIA was not included.

11. [REDACTED] LEGISLATION Roger LeMaster, Legislative Aide to Senator Walter Huddleston (D., Ky.), called inquiring as to the availability of a paper [REDACTED] OGC, and I went over with him during our meeting on sources and methods legislation on 3 March. 13. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. Miller said the Committee would be meeting on 9 March and he hoped to have Agency comments on the proposed preliminary statement on Micronesia by this afternoon, so it could be presented to the Committee at the 9 March meeting. I told Miller we had made real progress in the last few days but that I wasn't certain that we could have a firm response to him today. I later passed along the same information to Stan Taylor, also of the Select Committee, who called with the same request.

Miller asked me to check whether a newsman by the name of [REDACTED] has any intelligence connections. This man has apparently requested that the Committee inquire into the role of certain individuals in connection with Agency activities [REDACTED]

Mex.) staff, to discuss Agency concerns over legislation prohibiting false official documentation. 25X1

17. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with Dan Childs, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding follow-up items from Mr. Knoche's, DDCI, 11 February briefing of the Subcommittee on Budget Authorization. Childs refused to accept a written response to one of the follow-up items from that briefing. He said he would prefer a procedure where all follow-up items from a briefing, including both those questions raised during the briefing and those submitted by the staff afterwards, were transmitted to the Committee in a single package. I pointed out that this meant that all responses would be delayed until we were able to provide answers to all questions. Childs understood this but said nevertheless he preferred the suggested procedure, to which I agreed.

[REDACTED] FBIS Received a call from Lisa, in the office of Representative Bob Stump (D., Ariz.), concerning some FBIS raw sheets which Representative Robert Dornan (R., Calif.) had sent to Mr. Stump.
